EDMOND ROBLES,) Defendant.)
)

The United States opposes defendant Robles' motion to continue the sentencing date so that he can file a new trial motion raising ineffective assistance of counsel. Defendant Robles has waited almost four months from his conviction to retain an attorney to assert ineffective assistance. There is no credible, good faith argument based on the record in this case that his trial attorney was ineffective. The evidence against Robles, including testimony from two co-conspirators
